

UML Use Case Diagram

Admin actor receives request from filmmaker. Request is extended by two optional use cases – approval or rejection of film.

Filmmaker actor uploads film. Upload film use case is included in accepting terms and agreement, which also includes adding payment details.

Viewer actor has the option to view films. In order to do that, viewer must set up account, then logins in. For view film use case, payment is included. Payment use case is extended by 3 options, subscription, pay on demand and gift filmmaker. View film use case is extended to several options. Such as, search film, browse, write a review and view recommended films.